LASHLEE REUNION.

Near the banks of Tennessee River the descendants of W. P. and Katherine Lashlee assembled together in reunion Wednesday, July 18. A short program had been arranged for the noon hour. W. P. Saunders led in prayer and A. P. Lashlee gave a history of the courtship, marriage and lives of the foreparents.

On motion, it was voted to hold an annual reunion at that place on the 18th of July. A. P. Lashlee was chosen president, C. P. Saunders vice president and Orlando P. Lashlee secretary. After a sumptuous basket dinner, Mr. Wooten of Dyersburg made a photograph of the crowd, which was composed of 95 of the 137 living descendants and 5 visitors.

The young folks spent the afternoon in driving and rowing and the older one discussed current topics and events of the long ago. It was a day long to be remembered by all present, and as each one departed for home it was with the hope that the entire number would meet again at the same place July 18, 1918.

Caught With the Goods.

Julia M. Davis and Annie Greer, two dusky damsels from the railroad camps, were nabbed by Sheriff J. C. Parker and Marshal Allie Pafford as they stepped from the east bound train Tuesday evening. It was reported that the women were connected with a blind tiger outfit at the camps, and a search of their suit case after arrest revealed 4 quarts, 24 pints and 24 ½ pints of booze and some cigarettes.

It was said by those who examined it, that the stuff brought from Paducah by Julia and Annie was a very common article, probably cost them 20 cents a pint, and was sold in the camp for $1.50 a pint. They waived examination before Justice Tolbert Hollingsworth Wednesday afternoon, and were bound over under a bond of $400 each to await the action of the Grand Jury at the October term of Circuit Court.

If all reports are true the negro quarters at the railroad camps must be a tough joint. We have been told that dusky damsels of the demimonde flout their stock in trade at all times, and young girls are warned to avoid that locality. "Craps," the favorite game of the negro, flourishes, we are told, and is frequently the cause of strife in the negro quarters.

A large oak standing in front of the dwelling of W. H. Lockhart on North Main Street was struck by lightning during the thunder storm last Thursday evening. The family was away from home at the time, but neighbors nearby were shocked, some being almost overcome by the shock.
